SKUNK FU! FOR WORLDWIDE VIDEO RELEASE

Cake has secured a raft of home video deals for Skunk Fu! across the globe, following the broadcast rollout on the CW Network USA, Cartoon Network USA and Europe, BBC, Super RTL, France 5, Canal J, YTV Canada and ABC Australia, among others.

Most notably Cake has sealed a deal with NCircle Entertainment for release on 21st October 2008 in USA and Canada. This reinforces Warner Music's current release in UK, France and Australia; and Super RTL's planned release in Germany.

This ties-in with the toy range developed by Croco for Galleon Holdings showing at Licensing Show, New York this week. Galleon controls the worldwide merchandising programme at Toy Fair by Galleon Holdings.

"We are pleased with the opportunity to join forces with Cake to introduce Skunk Fu! to the North American home entertainment market. The company's recent broadcast deals with Cartoon Network USA and YTV Canada will unquestionably expand their brand awareness, which will serve to enhance our efforts on the retail side," says Debbie Ries, Senior Vice President and General Manager of NCircle.

"Having a double broadcast platform in the USA will give this property the best chance of success, and we are delighted to have NCircle as our partner for home video and electronic sell-thru," says Ed Galton of Cake Distribution.

SKUNK FU!, created by Aidan Harte, is a 52 x 13' animated comedy action adventure for kids aged 6-11. Skunk is a western kid learning Kung Fu from a wise old Panda in China, so that he can help the resistance fight against the evil Dragon and his army of Ninja Monkeys.

SKUNK FU! is a Cartoon Saloon, Cake Entertainment and Telegael co-production for TG4 (Ireland) and SUPER RTL (Germany).

All audiovisual exploitation rights are controlled by Cake Distribution and all licensing and merchandising rights are controlled by Galleon Plc. Both Cake Entertainment and Galleon Plc are equity owners in the SKUNK FU! property.
